

MAC CLINICAL RESEARCH

IS OCD RULING YOUR LIFE?

Check out our clinical trial and potentially re-gain control.

MAC Clinical Research is currently looking for people living with Obsessive Compulsive Disorder to participate in a clinical trial.

With your participation, you may be able to contribute to scientific research which may lead to a new medicine to help people suffering from OCD.

For more information on how you can get involved, please

SCAN THE QR CODE

INCLUSION CRITERIA

You must: be between 18 and 65 years-old; have had OCD, or OCD symptoms for at least 1 year; feel your current medication is not fully working.

LOCATIONS

The trial will run at our clinics in:
Lancashire, Manchester
Merseyside, South
Staffordshire,
South Yorkshire, Teesside
and West Yorkshire

REIMBURSEMENT

You could help generations to come plus you will receive £490 for your time and commitment upon completion of the trial.

Or visit researchforyou.co.uk